

RVL CA Relying Party Agreement

Between the Relying Party and RVL Certifying Authority.

The relying authority must read, acknowledge, accept and agree to this agreement before validating or verifying a digital certificate or otherwise accessing or using RVL certifying authority (RVL CA) database of certificate revocations and other information in the repository of RVL CA.

This Agreement provides, among other things, limited assurances or conditions of merchantability, merchantable quality or fitness for a precise purpose, limits liability, and excludes all liability for incidental, consequential, and punitive damages. Subscriber must carefully read the RVL CA CPS posted at the RVL CA web site <https://www.reliefvalidation.com.bd/repository.html> that is subject for revision and amendment from time to time, which is an integral part of this subscriber agreement. A relying party is not allowed and considered to use the RVL CA repository if the relying party does not agree to the terms and conditions.

This Agreement becomes effective when the subscriber submit a query to search for Certificate or to verify a Digital Signature created with a private key corresponding to a public key contained in a Certificate, or when subscriber otherwise use or rely upon any information or service provided by the RVL Certifying Authority.

☐ By applying for a digital certificate, I/we hereby confirm that I/we read the certificate practice statement and agree to all its terms and conditions.
